An exciting opportunity is now available to participate in developing the Chinese Fellowship ministry in Huddersfield.

We are looking for a mature Christian with a calling to the Chinese ministry. He/she should have a good education and a working knowledge of the Bible, and be sympathetic to Methodism. An ability to communicate fluently in Chinese and English is required. Some experience in Chinese ministry in the UK is preferred. An ability to preach is a pre-requisite and a desire to learn will be an advantage. He/she should also have a good understanding of safeguarding practice and be able to work both independently and as part of a team. There is a Genuine Occupational Requirement (GOR) that the successful candidate will be a practising Christian.
